Frequently Asked Questions

Lions Head property is managed by Dan Quigley, Kirkpatrick Management Company (KMC). The management company handles all management of the property, which includes maintenance requests, collection of fees and Rental Agreements for clubhouse rental requests, architectural modifications and unit owner concerns. Maintenance requests should be directed to Dan Quigley or submitted online through the KMC web site. If Dan is not available to take your call, follow the prompts in his voicemail to leave your message with the appropriate individual. KMC also provides 24-hour emergency service. Be advised that if the emergency service is related to your unit and not to common area plumbing, electrical, etc., you may be billed for the repair. Once you call for emergency service, you will receive a call from a KMC property manager who will determine whether the emergent nature of the request requires immediate attention.

How do I access the front gate, clubhouse and pool area?

Answer: Before you move-in, you need to contact KMC to be assigned two codes: a 4-digit code and a 3-digit code. Do not rely on the code of the prior owner as it will be deleted following the sale of the unit. From KMC you may also purchase a key fob for remote access to the front gate if you did not receive one at closing from the prior owner. To access the clubhouse, enter your 4-digit code followed by the star key (9999*); for the pool enter the 4-digit code (9999); and for the front gate, enter the pound (#) sign and then the 4-digit code (#9999). You should also receive a 3-digit code for the front gate which you can give to visitors or delivery personnel. When such person arrives, they enter the 3 digit code on the key pad at the front gate and you will receive a call on your cell phone or landline. When your phone rings, verify it is the person you are expecting, and simply press 9 on your key pad and the gate will open.

Satellite Installations

If you are using Direct TV, you may only install the dish on your patio, and in some instances, depending on the location the patio is facing, the dish may not be effective. It cannot be installed in the common area or on the building.

Does Lions Head have onsite maintenance staff?

Answer: Yes. Kevan Carriger is an employee of KMC assigned to Lions Head Monday thru Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. While he is considered on-site maintenance, requests for maintenance or service must be delivered to him through KMC. All maintenance and service requests by unit owners are sent to Kevan through KMC.

Does Lions Head have an Owner's Portal on its web site for residents to access information?

Answer: Yes. Instructions for accessing the Owner's Portal are on the Move-In Checklist. The Owner's Portal provides Board Meeting Minutes, Contracts, Financials, Forms, By-Laws, Covenants and Restrictions and many other documents that pertain to the Lions Head and its management.

I want to make modifications to my unit before moving in. Is there anything I must do?

Answer: Yes, you must complete a Request for Change Form and send it to Dan Quigley at Kirkpatrick Management Company (KMC). The property manager must be aware and advised of any construction occurring on the property. There are rules and regulations for contractors to preserve and protect the property and the residents. No changes or modifications can be started without approval. Please also provide your contractor with a copy of the Contractor Rules & Regulations.

I would like to have a storage container (Pod, etc.) delivered to hold some of my furniture until repairs are made. What is the procedure?

Answer: POD storage must be approved by KMC due to possible ingress and egress issues in parking areas. Note: there may be time restrictions for this type of storage.

Does every unit have available onsite storage?

Common area buildings house 4 storage closets on the first floor with one assigned to each unit. For bungalow owners, attic storage is available.

The fence and/or garden area around my patio is in disrepair. Who do I call?

Answer: The fence and/or garden area around your patio is there because a prior unit owner asked that the property be modified to add the railing, garden or enclosure for the patio. When modifications to the Common Area occur, that area becomes Limited Common Area, which is defined by the Lions Head Declaration, as property that exists for the exclusive use and enjoyment of a single unit owner. As such, you are responsible for maintaining those areas. If fences become unsightly or require repair, you may be contacted by KMC to either make the repairs or remove the modifications if the areas are not maintained.

I would like to replace my storm door / front door or paint my front door. What is the process?

Answer: In order to do this, you must first submit a Request for Change Form with specifications for the door and/or color and send it to KMC for approval. No changes or modifications can be started without approval.

My Purchase Agreement required certain modifications / repairs to my unit that are not completed. What should be done?

Answer: You should immediately submit a service request to KMC if the Lions Head Condominium Association agreed to make the repairs. Your realtor will have the answer for you. If it is a Lions Head repair you can either call the Property Manager or submit the request online.

When is trash picked-up?

Additionally, all boxes, most especially moving and larger boxes, must be broken down.

When and how do I pay my Association dues?
